Dear Prospective Subcontractor,

Thank you for your interest in partnering with Arms Wide to provide much-needed services and support to the families we serve. My name is DeJuana S. Jernigan, CEO at Arms Wide and I would like to share with you a little about who we are.

Arms Wide is a child and family-serving organization dedicated to transforming the lives of children in need of safe and nurturing permanent families through our foster care adoption and permanency support programs. Our decades of expertise along with our intimate size provide unparalleled, personalized support. Our commitment to every child, every family, wherever their paths lead, is to guide, support, celebrate, and make a positive impact on the whole family.

At Arms Wide, we embrace each family with warmth and compassion, and we hold their hand through each step of the journey, whether they are coming to us for foster care, foster care adoption, kinship care, or permanency support, and our ability to do that well is due, in large part, to community service providers like you.

As you begin the subcontracting process, I hope that you will experience the same warmth and compassion as our team guides you through the application process. The services you provide are integral to helping us achieve our mission to transform the lives of children in need of safe and nurturing permanent families.

Thank you, again, for applying to be a subcontracted service provider at Arms Wide where we are dedicated to preserving and fulfilling families.

Sincerely,

DeJuana S. Jernigan, MSW
