

FOR STRONG FAMILIES
DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT

WHARTON COUNTY JUNIOR COLLEGE AND UNITED WAY THRIVE AT FORT BEND PRESENT:

2018 FREE GED CLASSES

ALL INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES, INCLUDING BOOKS AND TUITION ARE FREE.

Let us help prepare your reading, writing and math skills for a high school equivalency exam!

The WCJC Adult Education and Literacy (AEL) program delivers instruction for:

- Adult Basic Education
- GED
- Distance Learning
- Transition to College or Career
- Basic Computer Skills

All Orientations and Classes will Occur at:

United Way Center—Fort Bend
12300 Parc Crest Dr.
Stafford, TX 77477
(281) 207-2300

Four (4) Hour Orientation Sessions

Choose One Day to Attend

Option 1: Wednesday, January 17, 2018

@5:30pm

Or

Option 2: Thursday, January 18, 2018

@9:00am

What to bring to orientation?

- Knowledge of your Social Security #
(A social security card is not required to attend class).
- A valid government issued identification card with photo, date of birth, and current address.

A Mandatory Orientation is REQUIRED for all prospective students. Sessions begin promptly at posted times. Please be punctual!

For more information or to RSVP, please call 281-207-2300

Ask About Our Free Door-to-Door Transportation Services!

Wharton County Junior College

United Way of Greater Houston

A UNITED WAY THRIVE CENTER

HELPING FAMILIES THRIVE